Daniel R. DeVos Receives Founders Award from the American Small Business Coalition

The American Small Business Coalition (ASBC) gathered in Northern Virginia on April 23, 2008 to celebrate the fourth anniversary of The ASBC and the achievements of its Members.

The ASBC is an association focused on assisting small companies that do business in the government sector. It is committed to supporting the efforts of government organizations as they acquire the information, products, services and solutions needed from trustworthy industry partners in support of agency mission goals.

Founders Awards were presented to two Members based on merit criteria established by the President and Chief Visionary, respectively. This year's Founders Awards were presented to:

- Mr. Daniel DeVos, Chief Executive Officer on behalf of Concurrent Technologies Corporation (CTC)
- Mr. Richard Dean, Principal of Market Intel Consulting
