

New Challenge Coin Commemorates Air Force Association's 75th Anniversary

Concurrent Technologies Corporation (CTC) and its affiliate CTC Foundation joined together to create a new challenge coin that honors the 75th anniversary of the Air Force Association.

The coin was conceived and generously underwritten by CTC Foundation Chairman of the Board, Retired U.S. Air Force Col. Conway B. Jones, Jr. It was designed by CTC graphic designer Carianne Weakland, who also coordinated its production.

Challenge coins are a deep-rooted tradition in many organizations, especially in the U.S. military. They are given as a token of honor and are held with pride.

The Air Force Association is an independent, nonprofit, non-partisan, professional military and aerospace education association. It is dedicated to U.S. dominance in air, space, and cyberspace; a strong national defense; and support for the people who serve in the U.S. Air Force and the U.S. Space Force.
