Concurrent Technologies Corporation Annual Report Wins 3 Awards; 11th Straight Year Creative Team Earns Industry Honors

Johnstown, PA, July 20, 2017 – The Concurrent Technologies Corporation Fiscal Year 2016 annual report has won a Gold MarCOM award, Gold HERMES award, and a newly announced APEX Award for Publication Excellence, marking the eleventh consecutive year that the publication has been honored for marketing communications excellence in national and international competitions.

“Our annual report has won 18 awards in the past 11 years, and we are proud to be competing against the best in the industry,” said Mary Bevan, Director, Corporate Communications and Brand Marketing, Concurrent Technologies Corporation. “This project requires a tremendous amount of teamwork from employees across the organization. Beth Ann Lombardi has written the annual report each year, and Carianne Weakland has designed it. Other team members who contributed to the annual report are David Covolo, Sharon Paterson, and Ed Sheehan. It is a great honor and privilege to work with this talented group.”

Bevan serves as the project manager for the annual report. She noted that the team has won APEX, Hermes, Ragan Communications, and Service Industry Advertising honors in addition to MarCom awards. There have been eleven gold awards and one platinum award over the past eleven years.

- The 2016 MarCom Awards, an international competition that recognizes outstanding achievements by marketing and communication professionals, is administered and judged by the Association of Marketing and Communication Professionals.
- HERMES Awards honor the messengers and creators of traditional and emerging media, from websites to annual reports. The competition is international, and more than 200,000 entries have been received since the inaugural year in 1994.
- Corporate and nonprofit publishers, writers, and designers who create print, web, electronic, and social media have participated in the APEX Awards for Publication Excellence competition for 29 years.
