for Communications Excellence

Annual Report Wins Gold Award in Hermes Creative Awards 2014 Competition

Johnstown, PA, September 24, 2014 – For the ninth consecutive year, Concurrent Technologies Corporation (CTC) has been nationally recognized for communications excellence. Based on the evaluation of the Association of Marketing and Communication Professionals' (AMCP) judges, CTC's Fiscal Year 2013 annual report received a Gold award in the Hermes Creative Awards 2014 competition.

"This is the second consecutive year that our annual report earned a Gold Hermes Award," said Mary Bevan, CTC Director of Corporate Communications and Brand Marketing.

"Each year, the annual report highlights the work and events that shaped our company and showcases employees' achievements," Bevan said. "It's our premier publication and is shared with internal and external audiences throughout the year, so we are extremely pleased that it is recognized as a quality document as compared to the best in the nation. CTC's annual report is created by our own talented writers, graphic designers, photographers, and other team members, and I congratulate them on another well-deserved Gold award."

Hermes Creative Awards is an international competition for creative professionals involved in the concept, writing and design of traditional materials and programs, and emerging technologies. The competition is administered and judged by the Association of Marketing and Communication Professionals.
